Student Council Requires Top Grades

Among the activities sponsored by the Junior High Student Council was the writing of a constitution.

Second, they sponsored a candy sale. The money went toward buying a film projector and providing funds for drillteam, one-act play, cheerleaders and other junior high activities.

Third, they had a group of first graders from Hillsboro to come and sing Christmas carols with them and other junior high students.

The student council also help people in the community. They took up a collection of canned food and fruits.

Last but not least they sponsored an assembly in which a ventriloquist was the entertainment.

Members for the next year are elected each spring. The first thing to be done is the scheduling of a welcoming program for new students.

The precious golden moments of long ago
Reflect in our hearts when our thoughts return
To youth, so dear, with it's radiant glow,
Like the fleeting beauty of a rare woodland and fern.

The past is mellowed with time and with age;
It rewards us with treasures we love to recast;
We may turn in our dreaming to a yellow page,
And rejoice in telling a joy of the past.

Too often we say to our friends of long ago,
"Oh, do you remember the story of how . . .?"
The retelling of a story that will always glow
In hearts that have journeyed from then until now.

With each seed of kindness and love that we plant,
Tomorrow will bring us time's loveliest gift . . .
A past that is pleasant to relive and recant,
A present to store all the joy that shall uplift
Our hearts to a golden tomorrow's enchant.

Dallas millionaire H. Ross Perot, Chairman of the Governor's Select Committee on Reforming Education, made daily newspaper headlines in 1983-84; when he publicly criticized the Texas Public School System. The committee was formed by Gov. Mark White. It's purpose is to compile a set of feasable solutions to the problems in the public schools. The committee is made up of several prominent civic and business leaders. The committee made its formal disclosure of their suggestions to the TSTA in Waco a short time back. Suggestions put down by the SCORE Committee were met with mixed feelings by the crowd present and it will be up to a forced session of the Legislature for the proposals to pass. One of the major points discussed in the proposal was the restriction of extracurricular activities such as football, basketball, and other UIL activities. These suggestions increase eligibility standards and decrease time allowed for the events. If these proposals were passed, school would be forced into a very bad time and financial position.

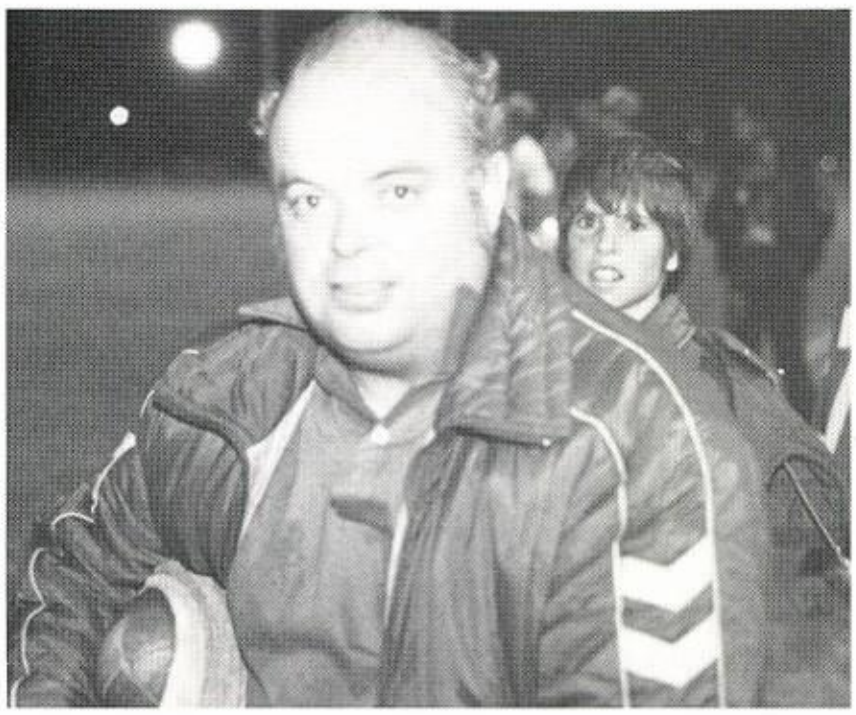
Ingram Supports Wildcats Team

Dale Remains Most Loyal Fan



No matter what the weather, Dale Ingram faithfully supports his team.

With his towel in hand and a smile on his face, manager Dale Ingram is ready for anything.

Dale Ingram is the Wildcat's most loyal fan. He helps manage the high school football teams. He travels with and is an important part of the managing staff, says Athletic Director Larry Nabors. Dale is always quick with praise and support no matter how the game is going. He has very good recall of the games and has not missed one in two years. He came to Whitney from Lubbock where he went to school. He has lived here since 1970. He helps his Dad around the nursery and farm, and he owns some cattle of his own. His other interests include hunting and fishing.

For the second straight year, the Wildcats won the district 16AA title. The Cats started the year with a close 3-0 win over Italy and beat a tough Lorena team 7-0 the next week. For the third straight week, the Wildcats' defense held their opponents to zero total points when the Wildcats defeated China Spring 35-0, ending a seven-year jinx. The Cats' toughest challenge came from the strong Alvarado team. The Wildcats lost in a close 8-14 battle. The following week, the team suffered their second loss of the year to Hubbard with a score of 14-27.

Entering district play with a 3-2 record, the Wildcats defeated Glen Rose 21-8 in front of a large Homecoming crowd. The Wildcats destroyed arch rival Clifton 33-0 the next week. The Cats were out for revenge against Itasca but came up with a 7-7 tie. The Wildcats had a 2-0-1 district record going up against undefeated Blooming Grove. The game was expected to be close but the Cats won 54-8. In the final district game the Wildcats defeated Grandview 29-7.

Going into Bi-District with a 7-2-1 record, the Wildcats won in a tough defensive battle by beating Crandall 7-0. Advancing to Area for the second year in a row, the Cats played a strong Frisco team and suffered a 22-3 heart-breaking defeat. Frisco scored 20 points in the final four minutes of the game, ending the Wildcats' football season with a 8-3-1 record.

The 1983 Junior Varsity football year was not what Coach Hay had bargained for, but it was not a total loss. This year's J.V. was a very young team. The squad consisted of 26 players; 14 freshmen and 12 sophomores. In their first game the Cats were defeated by the Italy Gladiators 24-0, but came on strong in the second game beating Lorena in a close fought battle 16-14. The Cats then faced China Springs who downed Whitney 35-0. The following week the Wildcats faced the Alvarado Indians who would prove to be the Cat's toughest challenge. The Indian's overtook the Wildcats 46-0.

Entering district play with a 1-2 record, the Junior Varsity squad kept giving it their all. They finished the season with a 2-8 record. It may not have been a championship year for the J.V., but it certainly was a learning experience for the team and an enjoyable experience for the spectators who admired the squad's integrity.

Wildcats Quest For Title

Dale Bailey shoots for a quick two.

The Wildcats started the 83-84 basketball season in their quest for their second straignt 16AA district title. The Wildcats saw their district title chances crumble in the last two weeks. The team was tied with arch rival Itasca, but dropped both meetings with them. Wildcat fans saw their team in a must-win situation.

Wildcats were in second place with Grandview, one game behind. The Wildcats had to win against Grandview in order to advance to bi-district. The cats lost at Grandview and were forced in a playoff game against Grandview in the Cleburne gym. In the playoff games the Wildcats and the Zebras saw a halftime score of 29-29. After a rough game, Whitney ended five points short of advancing to bi-district. Whitney lost 54-58.

Despite the loss to Grandview, the Cats had a good year. In the Rio Vista tournament Whitney took second place, and in the Lake Whitney Classic the Wildcats took first place. Their seasonal record was 16-10.

Stacy Trotter leaps above LaVega guard for an easy shot.

JV Cats Win Early Games

James Fowler performing an excellent hook shot.

The junior varsity Wildcats went into their 1983 season with flying colors. They won both of their first games before they were turned away by Hillsboro.

After the damaging loss to Hillsboro, the Wildcats lost their next two games. The Wildcats went into district with a 2-4 record. Their first district game the Wildcats were defeated in a teeth-shattering 36 to 40 loss to the Blooming Grove Lions. After their loss to the Lions the Wildcats came back to beat the Glen Rose Tigers 41-37. After this game the Wildcats won one more game and lost 2, and ended their district play with a record of 2-3.

Becky and Russell enjoy a romantic walk while in Austin.

This was a very exciting year for the Speech and Drama Club. They sold GooGoo bars again and hosted a speech tournament. Those teams competing were: Grandview, Hillsboro, Blooming Grove, Crawford, Clifton and Glen Rose, with Lorena coming out on top. Mr. Thiele advised a large number of students for UIL events. Two students advanced to Regional in Stephenville. Russell Lyday advanced in persuasive speaking and Dale Bailey advanced in the informative speaking category.

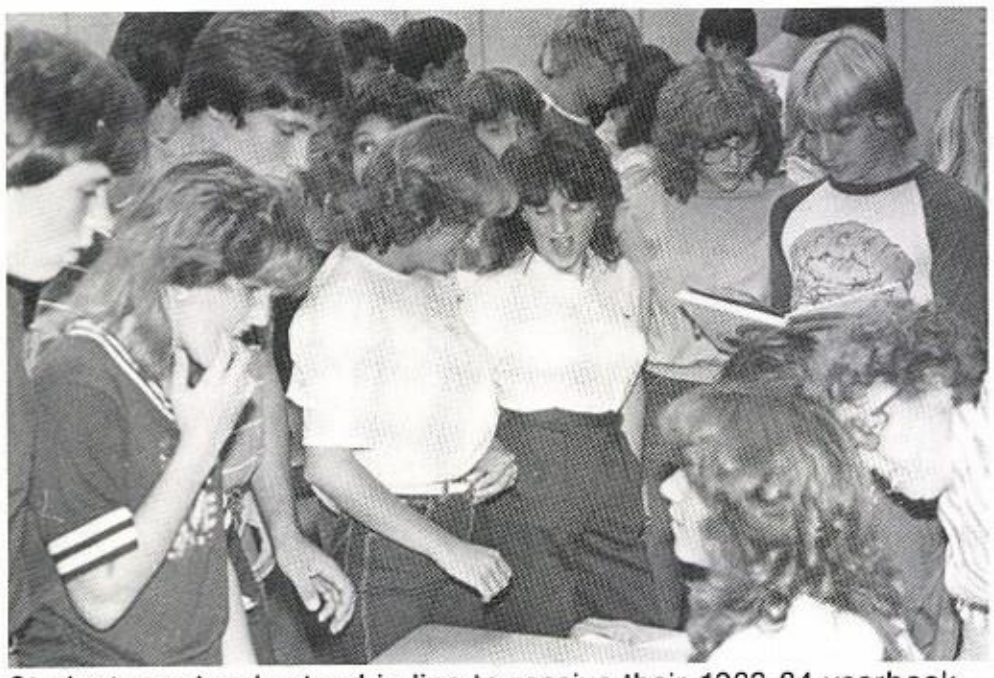
Laurecia, Ginger, and Kenda are all smiles at the zoo.

Russell and Becky have racing pulses.

This year the Science Club, headed by Ms. Klitzing, travelled to the Ft. Worth Zoo on their field trip. The group enjoyed touring the park and visiting the amusement area next door. Someone in the group thought it would be a neat idea to buy water guns. As it turned out, about 30 people decided it was a great idea! Besides being a wonderful way to cool off, it was a terrific way to get even with someone! All in all it was a fun trip, except for the time we spent waiting for Brad Weiss and Dale Bailey to join us for the trip home.



Students anxiously stand in line to receive their 1983-84 yearbook.

Did they let the animals loose? No, it's just Belinda, Glenda, and Jennie at the zoo!

Band Takes 251 Awards in '83-'84

Winning honors is nothing new to Whitney ISD bands, but 83-84 was spectacular.

For instance, the High School Marching Band, besides receiving new uniforms, participated in a number of contests. At Pilot Point the band rated a division III, and at the Denton Bands Over Texas contest, they placed third in their section.

Several students competed in the Junior High and High School Region and District Bands. In junior high Leigh Ann Taylor and Scott Jones made region, while Steven Reid, Keven Kyser, and Matt Messa were in the district band. Tony Stults was in the high school region band and Jon Williamson, the district band.

The bands did especially well at solo and ensemble competitions. At the Troy Solo and Ensemble Contest band members gained 109 first division medals and over 40 second division ribbons. Sixty-two medals were obtained at the Academy Contest, and at Tarleton the following students rated I's: Jon Williamson, Tony Stults, Melanie Rogers, and Sonni Gandy - solos; Tony Stults and James Lewis, Leigh Ann Taylor and Paula Bowers - duets. James Lewis, Noah Devereux, Mark Booth, Chris Malone, Kjersten Thiele, Kathy Heath, and April Ayers were awarded II's. Jon Williamson accepted a trophy for Outstanding Brass Soloist. At the UIL Solo and Ensemble Competition Tony Stults, Grace Kevetter, Tim Townson, and Jon Williamson acquired I's and, therefore, competed at the state contest. Recipients of division II ratings were Nita McKinney - vocal, Melanie Rogers, Keven Kyser, Glenn McAskill, Chris Penaluna, Dana Dalrymple, Lorraine Kirkpatrick, and Melinda Ward.

In 1983-84 the concert bands vied for ratings at UIL and at Sandy Lake. The seventh and eighth grades earned II's, while the fifth and sixth graders attained I's at Sandy Lake. The high school concert band competed for UIL at Connally ISD and were given two division III ratings.

Finally, at the Third Annual Band Banquet, special award winners included, from the fifth grade: Doug Collins and Carol Ryder - Most Improved; Amy Benson, Jennifer Nivin, and Bobby Phillips - Musicianship; and Jimmy Atwell - Best Bandsman. The winners from the sixth grade were Kim Crouch and Anthony Williams - Most Improved; Deanna Hyslop, Heather Lewis, Lynn Madis, and Cliff Winkleman - Musicianship; and Jill Taylor - Best Bandsman.

In the seventh grade April Ayers, James Anthony, Chris Sosebee, Anthony Taber, and Kjersten Thiele won the Musicianship awards, and Leigh Ann Taylor received the Best Bandsman award. Eighth grade recipients were Dean Knight and Steven Reid - Most Improved; Scott Jones, Carol Kevetter, and Chris Penaluna - Musicianship; and Tana Shaw - Best Bandsman.

High School award receivers included Raynette Coates and Glenn McAskill - Most Improved: Sonni Gandy, James Lewis, Tim Townson, and Jon Williamson - Musicianship; and Debbie Penaluna - Best Bandsman. Also receiving special recognition awards were Dana Dalrymple, Rhonda Law, Elizabeth McLarry, and Melanie Rogers. Nita McKinney was awarded the choral award, and Tony Stults was presented with the prestigious Director's Award.

All in all, 1983-84 has been a successful year for Whitney bands.

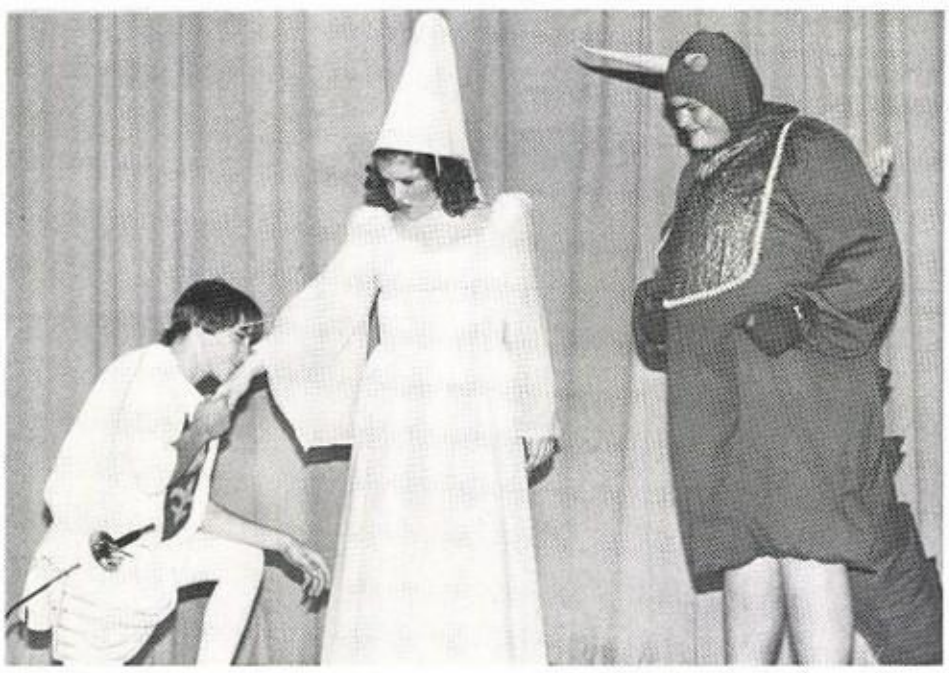
This year the OAP cast presented "The Near Sighted Knight and the Far Sighted Dragon." The play is about a princess who is trying to rescue her father from a mean duchess. Along the way to the castle to save her father, she meets up with a near sighted knight. As they journey on toward the castle, they encounter a far sighted dragon. They are all captured by the duchess' guard and thrown into the dungeon. The dragon melts the bars in the dungeon and frees the king and princess, and they all live happily ever after.

At district competition in Corsicana Jeff Landon and Kirk Curry both received honorable mentions on the All-Star Cast.



The knight asks the princess for her hand.

The duchess reprimands the guard as Wilfred laughingly observes.

The dragon, knight, and King pass the time in the dungeon by playing cards.

Bertha is upset with the fancy city girl, Ginger Hibbitts.

The Senior play this year was held April 26. The selection was "Headin' for a Weddin' " by Le Roma Greth.

The hero of the play, Homer, Dale Bailey, falls in love with a girl he found in a newspaper picture.

He begins exaggerating about living in a mansion, vacationing in Europe, and his very refined and educated profile.

His two sisters, Sarah Jo, Stacy Maybry, and Gracie, Tina Mayfield, spend all of their time teasing Homer and chasing boys.

During the middle of a snow storm, Homer is writing a letter to his "girlfriend" when Gracie grabs it from him and reads it aloud. Paw, Jerry Ince, says it is a "courtin" letter and demands to know who the girl is. They come to the conclusion that it is Bertha Blairhouse, Tammy Moore.

Melissa Dugan, Ginger Hibbitts, the girl with whom Homer is corresponding, unexpectedly arrives at his door step. She explains that she became lost in the storm while on her way to marry a handsome, well-educated young man with whom she had been corresponding; Homer didn't intend for his letters to become that serious.

In his efforts to remain secret, he fails. He then, through Melissa's method of revenge, finds himself engaged to Bertha.

Gracie tells Bertha that Homer is suffering a period of unconsciousness during which he thinks he is a dog.

He didn't have an idea what Gracie did until Bertha gave him a bone to chew on.

During the "happy surprise" there was a little feuding, but everything ended up just the way everyone had planned.

Other characters were; Jerry Phillips as Slim Blairhouse; Jeff Landon as Grandpappy Hankley; Laurecia Hill as Hortense Todd; Crystal Cagle as Isabell Todd; Danette Lampson as Sis Hollowbone; Kenny Caviness as Pepper Hollowbone; Kim Comer as Maw Hollowbone; Lori Lovejoy as Fannie Jane Hollowbone; and Lynn Garner as Widow Blairhouse.

W.E. "Bill" Grace

We thank you, Mr. Grace, for helping the Whitney School by:

1) Building and equiping a $50,000 project barn for our FFA students.
2) Giving 84 calves and feed to the FFA students the past nine years.
3) Giving eight scholarships totaling $18,000 to graduating seniors the past five years.
4) Giving a $2,000 scholarship annually for the future seniors.
5) Giving a video camera, recorder and television for taping the skill teams.

This has meant so much to all of us and we thank you again.
